Moderato

The first system of the piano introduction is in 2/4 time, marked Moderato. It begins with a f (forte) dynamic. The melody is in the right hand, featuring eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat).

p Not too fast

The vocal melody is written on a single staff in the treble clef, with lyrics underneath. The piano accompaniment is on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The tempo is marked p Not too fast. The lyrics are: "These days ev - 'ry fel - low has a sweet - heart, There are times when I get fair - ly start - ed". The piano part consists of chords and single notes in both hands, supporting the vocal line. The key signature remains two flats.

"I Want a Girl to Love Like You"

A Tuneful Melody by Walter Wilson

An optical slant at the following terrific Song Hits published by the Thompson Music Co.

[the tuneful house]

"I Wish I Had a Girl,"

by Kahn & LeBoy. Sung and played in every nook and corner. The greatest "Sentimentally loquacious novelty" published in years. This song has that psychological something—you must hear it to find out.

"Base-Ball,"

Lewis & Brown's great characteristic number. Distinctly individual—a musical and poetical diagnosis of the National game. Brown's music means original melody, and he wrote this one.

"Will You Always Call Me Honey,"

by Kahn & LeBoy. A new ballad, but different from the rest. A reminiscent lyric given a beautiful and harmonious setting. The success of a song is in a modus operandi of the melody, and this song has the proper ingredients.

"In The Good Old United States,"

by Lewis & Mincer. A stirring march song with a tinge of patriotism. Not a superfluous "give us your kind applause" song; just a genuine Yankee march hit.
